

Mistletoe Man (China Bayles Book 9)

In this intelligently plotted and deliciously descriptive tale (Publishers Weekly), national bestselling author Susan Wittig Albert tells the story of a woman's search for justice and of her struggle to reconcile the demands of her business with the desires of her heart. Former big-city lawyer China Bayles worked hard to make her Texas herb shop, Thyme and Seasons, a success. Now business is booming at her charming new tea room, Thyme for Teabut China is too distracted to revel in her latest entrepreneurial triumph. When she's not trying to spend more time with her new husband and stepson, she's worrying about her best friend, Ruby, who just hasn't been herself lately. To further complicate matters, China has to round up a supply of mistletoe, the season's most popular herb. It seems an easy enough task until her chief supplier turns up dead.
