

In a Certain Light

Jenny Roo, a television interviewer, has made a sanctuary for her life in New York, where she fled nine years earlier, finally believing that the three thousand miles that separated her from her ex-husband Paul are enough to bring safety and serenity to herself and her twelve-year-old daughter, Rachel. Until one day Rachel excitedly tells her that Daddys coming to New York, and Jenny becomes terrified that her innocent and trusting daughter will find out the truth about her father, which has been kept from her since she was a child. In A Certain Light is a deeply moving story of a womans journey from the paralysis of fear to the strength of independence. It is a memorable story of growing up and growing older.
