

The Haunted Valley and Other Ghost Stories

MysteryLarge Print EditionAnother outstanding collection of ghost stories from Mary Williams, who is becoming a most popular and widely-read author in this genre. The wide variety of themes include the humorous, the mysterious, and the macabre. The title story tells of a silent people who live in a haunted valley, in a ghostly realm which, once seen, will turn the rest of life into a quest to find it again. This, along with Miss Twiggs mysterious red roses, Clarissa and the Thingummyjig, and more, make up an inspired new collection.

Established in 1861, I was sure that there would be stories about the ghosts of miners or others that had been killed in that old mining camp.
